Post Prevents Women From Being Crushed to Death

PRISONER IS HELD ANSWER AT SAN BRUNO FOR MURDER

REDWOOD CITY, Aug. 19.—Late this afternoon W. A. Hightower, charged with the murder of Father Patrick Heslin, was spirited away in a closed car to San Bruno, where his preliminary examination was held before Justice of the Peace Johnson. But little testimony was offered, and at its conclusion Hightower was held to answer before the Superior Court without bail.

The prisoner faced Doris Shirley Putnam, the woman of mystery in the case, and her husband, Lee Putnam.

Other witnesses were Dr. W. A. Brooks, coroner of San Mateo county; Constable S. A. Landini; Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson, and Miss Marie Wendel, housekeeper for the murdered priest.

The prisoner conducted his own case. He asked few questions. Dramatic in the extreme was the testimony of the Shirley woman. She told of her relations with Hightower, from the time she met him in Salt Lake until she parted company with him the night before Father Heslin was murdered. From her own lips Hightower learned for the first time that she had completely shattered his alibi and that she had married another man.

Hightower asked her but one question, inquiring whether she remembered an automobile trip with him to Salada Beach on which the machine broke-down. She replied she did not remember it.

He looked intently and sadly at her

ROTARIANS MAKE MERRY AT "RUBE" PARTY AT CLUBHOUSE

An old-fashioned dinner of chicken with dumplings, potatoes in their jackets, corn on the cob and other rustic fare, served in farm style, started off the old-time party given by the Rotary club for members and their ladies at the Richmond Club House last evening.

After the rural meal had been disposed of, an hour's entertainment was provided, beginning with orchestral music and community singing led by Larry Moore of the Oakland Rotary Club. Mrs. Hal Atkinson of Piedmont, soloist of the Trinity Episcopal church, San Francisco, sang some beautiful selections.

Larry Moore gave a brief talk on music, urging that the local Rotarians foster a musical yoke in Richmond. Rev. Thomas A. Boyer entertained the party for 15 minutes in his inimitable manner. A former monologue by Henry Johnston made quite a hit.

Another pleasing feature of the entertainment was the singing of little Miss Whitmore of Alameda and Master Frank Fisher of Berkeley, dressed in Colonial garb.

"After the dinner the guests formed in a grand march down to the ballroom, which had been given a few rustic touches with liberal applications of hay, old cart wheels, poultry in coops, and bits of harness. The guests, all dressed in rube style or the fashions of long ago, joined in old style waltzes, Virginia reels and other by-gone dances.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Most original character, Dr. Charles Lipp; best sustained character, Mrs. Charles Pulse; best waltzers, Mrs. Jack Best, and Mrs. U. S. Abbott.

The committee which arranged for the unique event was composed of Henry Johnston, chairman; Will Fraser, Fred La Moine, Jesse Hitchcock and Otto Poulsen.

AUTOMOBILE OVERTURNS INTO DITCH 3 INJURED

A telephone pole near the corner of Market and Kearney street, which prevented an automobile from completely turning over, probably saved Mrs. W. E. Pomeroy of 1801 Garvin avenue, Mrs. Stanley Wood of Mendocino avenue, El Cerrito, and Mrs. H. A. Chapman of Sixteenth street, Oakland, from instant death yesterday afternoon.

As it turned out the accident was a serious one, and Mrs. Pomeroy is in the Craven hospital, unconscious, and it is feared, suffering from concussion of the brain. Mrs. Chapman suffered a fractured arm, and Mrs. Wood received some cuts and bruises about the hands.

Mrs. Wood was driving and had taken her friends out for a ride. When Market and Kearney was reached, in making the turn a miscalculation was made and the car turned over in the ditch, rolling against the telephone pole, which prevented it from crushing the life out of all three.

The ladies were thrown violently to the ground. Passersby picked the injured up and they were rushed to the emergency hospital, where first aid was given and afterwards Mrs. Pomeroy was removed to the Craven hospital.

The car is badly wrecked, the top is mashed, the windshield broken, benders badly damaged, and the body bent and twisted.

DEMAND FOR STILL IS BIG AND BOOTLEGGING CONTINUES

Judging from the reports of the number of stills that are being sold by hardware dealers, and the number that are arriving by freight and express to Richmond, there must be an awful lot of illicit manufacturing of liquor going on.

This situation has become so serious in all sections of the state that the federal enforcement agents are planning a new drive.

Along with the increase of sale of stills comes a big demand for sugar and corn, both whole and cracked, and it is said that grocers have hard work keeping a sufficient supply on hand that will meet the demand.

Bootleggers are still merrily pursuing their trade and arrests and fines do not seem to be a deterrent in any way.

KEEL OF FIRST OF THREE NEW FERRIES TO BE LAID AUG. 27

Ceremonies in honor of an event which signifies the first step in better bay transportation will take place at the Union shipyards of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation at San Francisco on Saturday, August 27, when the keel of the first of the three new ferries of the Six Minute Ferry Company will be laid.

Officials of Richmond and all the bay cities have been invited to be present, and the first rivets will be placed by Mayor Ralph of San Francisco and Mayor Davies of Oakland. All the stockholders of the Six Minute Ferry Company are also invited to the ceremonies. Moving pictures will be taken of the event.

Delivery of the first ferry will require from three to six months, during which period the keels of the other two will be laid. The officials of the company hope to have the new ferry running by the first of the year.

GRAND OFFICERS EASTERN STAR PAY VISIT TO LOCAL CHAPTERS

The official visit of the grand officers of the Order of the Eastern Star was paid to Acantha and Miramar Chapters, O. E. S., at Masonic hall last evening. Among the grand officers present were Grand Matron, Mrs. Effie Easton; Past Grand Ptorn Dr. Lew Wallace; Past Grand Matron, Mrs. G. L. Herrick; Past Grand Associate Matron Mrs. Emma Blanchard; Past Grand Patron, A. T. Biddle.

Other visitors included the matrons and patrons of various San Francisco and Oakland lodges.

The opening and closing work of the order was put on by Miramar Chapter, and the initiation work by Acantha Chapter. Two candidates were taken into membership. During the ceremonies of their respective chapters, Worthy Matron Martha Fraser and Worthy Patron Henry Hill presided for Acantha chapter, and worthy Matron Anna Coward and Worthy Patron Leslie Black for Miramar chapter.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the affair, and the membership of both Star lodges was represented by an unusually large attendance.

Dinky Car on Fourteenth St. Is Hit By Auto

While driving east along Cutting boulevard early last evening Mrs. W. R. Landgras of 2705 Derby street, Berkeley, ran into the car on the Fourteenth street line. The bumper that was on the front end of the sedan saved the auto from serious damage, and Mrs. Landgras escaped without injury.

From the facts gathered, the men on the street car are not to blame in any way.

Service Station of Standard Oil at Byron is Robbed

Taking a peek that lay in the yard of the service station of the Standard Oil Company at Byron, some one cracked open the lock of the station and entered. The office was thoroughly ransacked and about $25 in cash taken. A search has been undertaken by Constable Le Grand of Byron, but no clew has been discovered so far.

SATURDAY SUMMARY

Yesterday and the day before the Standard Oil Company here started up, the asphalt plant again, which has been idle for sometime, and also put in active service several batteries of stills which have been loafing on the job for months. This looks like the beginning of the beginning, and all will rejoice to see the big refinery spurt up a bit after working shorthanded all spring and summer. The strike of the marine workers was a blow to that industry, as it tied up a large fleet of tankers which otherwise would have been toting to all parts of the world, laden with the oil products refined in Richmond. That is all over now, the seamen having decided that striking was a losing game any way it could be figured, and the tankers are now at sea, hence the starting up of new batteries of stills here. Hardly a worker over there but what has been in constant fear of losing his job, and this has knocked general business generally west and crooked, for one man was afraid to spend a dollar not absolutely necessary, and this in turn reflected upon the business and prosperity of all merchants here, and hence to everybody else. If this condition is now over, as seems likely all will draw a long sigh of relief, buck up the belt, expectorate on the hands and feet, busy getting busy. When part an immense institution as Standard Oil gets cranked, everybody for miles around has to take notice, and also a little Japanese ginger, even if it does have a kick in it.

While we poke all manner of fun at the silly short skirts some of the women and girls wear, to be perfectly frank about it, it must be admitted that not much of that extreme stuff is seen in Richmond, not near as much as in some other sections. Of the ten thousand women and girls here, not to exceed fifty of them wear the extreme short-skirts, with credit to them be it said. In fact, the women of Richmond are about as sensible a lot as we ever ran across in all our many and wide-flung travels. This compliment may also be extended to cover all of California, for the women of California are as nice as ever were born, even exelling, in some respects, our old home state of Colorado. It is a good sight to look into the faces of the women here. Often times they seem careworn and sort of pathetic, for reasons of their own, but there is entirely lacking that miserable blaze and sinister look, very little smart-Alec traces and nothing whatever vampish. They look like home people, and that is what they are, God bless their dear hearts. The only reason we don't try to marry every one of them are, the one we have might hand us what Maggie Landa Father Jigs, the law would object, and we haven't the price, anyway. But we are going to love them all, anyhow. But cause any man that don't is wrong in the head and needs fixing.

A lot of people in Berkeley, who are more nice than wise and have more finicky notions than common sense objected to an auto camp being established in that town because it would not match the lawns and flowers and silk stockings and aghrow erodition. A pik rass was kicked up about it, and it has finally been compromised by the auto camp being given a year's trial, with the understanding that if it does not drive all the sensitive natures out of the neighborhood it can become permanent. Any city or large town that has no auto camp now is way behind the times, and gets a knock from hundreds of thousands of tourists who otherwise would be its friends and boosters. It is a convenience demanded by modern conditions, and the new one Richmond is now fixing up is going to be one of the best investments we ever made. It denotes friendliness and hospitality, two things Berkeley and every other community will do well to cultivate. Oakland is also without an auto camp, and remarks are made about it all over the state which are anything but complimentary. Hospitality to the stranger within the gates is a godly virtue and so recognized by mankind all over the world. It is a wonder Oakland does not realize this fact, and we cannot understand why Joe Cane has overlooked such a good sure-winning bet.

Judge Hall registers an objection to last Saturday's "Summary," and says that in our subway satire the contention that he was given sufficient raise in wages to warrant T-bone steak once a week is untrue, unfounded in fact and wholly unadvisable. All right, then, we will compromise by substituting round steak for the porterhouse. We are always willing to arbitrate, and think the labor unions and Builders' Exchange ought to do the same thing.

OUT WEST THE PLACE

There's only one place for a man to be,
 And that's "out West!"
 There's where the winds blow cool and free,
 Away "out West!"
 There's just one spot where life is sweeter,
 Where business hums with a rhythmic meter,
 Where girls are prettier far—and neater—
 And that's "out west!"

E. A. B. in Chronicle.

The above cute little jingle chimes right in with what we have been writing about the women of the west, and especially California. If you want to see women that would give Pain-Killer a pain, go to New York. The last time we were there it was not summer time and we went out to Coney Island to get a swim in the ocean and cool off. There were about a million women on the beach, clad in nothing worth mentioning. They didn't even wear a pleasant smile, because that would have cracked their complexion. We took one horrified look at their flat chests, the narrow hips and the broomstick limbs and fled, taking the next train West. At Chicago it was a relief to see something in the line of femininity that outweighed a feather duster and didn't have the same shape, and probably we'd have been out on State street yet if a policeman hadn't have told us to move on. We moved on further West, and our startled and pained optic nerve was soothed and lubricated by the joyous and altogether paradisaical loveliness glimpsed at Denver and Salt Lake. But still there was a little something lacking which bursts into light like a glorious sunrise as soon as California was reached. We have never left the border of the state since, and don't intend to. We shall just stay right here the rest of our natural life and enjoy the scenery, fearing naught of death, because heaven must, in order to be heaven, be fixed up just that way.

Superintendent of Schools Hunter of Oakland made some remarks at the Rotary Club dinner yesterday which contained a great truth, and dwelt be of interest in Richmond and everywhere. He said that when it came to spending money and paying taxes for schools we ought to bear in mind the fact that the more we spend on schools and education the less we have to spend on crime and criminals. The cost of operating penal institutions for the past year has been $55,153,470, and the same has increased 50 per cent in the past few years, and will continue to increase. Education is the greatest known prevention of crime. Children that are properly educated and taught to do right in preference to wrong grow up to be good, useful citizens, as a rule. It is the ignorant class of people who commit most of the crimes. They don't know any better. And taking care of the ignorant is more costly than making education general land easy.

If anybody knows where there is a good home for one, two, three, or four cute little black kittens, we wish they would wireless this department. They are of mighty good stock, their mother bringing in from 75 to 100 gophers per month, three to four every day. They are mighty fine little fellows, and when we call them they come helter skelter from under the rose bushes or squash vines and shin up our panzlog like we were an ungroined pole, which is partly what we are, our father having been a Pole. We hate like everything to drown those little chaps, and it does seem as though this world was big enough so they could live. But counting them, we have six, and soon there will be sixty, and we have a hunch the head of the house will draw the line at sixty—otherwise we wouldn't be worrying this way. If you want one or two, we will make delivery free at once.

Film Portraying
Country Scenes
Very Interesting

Time turned back the pages of life yesterday on the screen of the Richmond T. & D. Theater when "The Old Swimmin' Hole," with Charles Ray starring as Ezra was presented to an appreciative audience. It will be presented again today.

The Ray vogue has become such an institution that if the popular young star appeared in "Hamlet" his admirers would doubtless declare that he was unsurpassed, but Ray knows he is happiest in juvenile roles and his good judgment has again been shown in "The Old Swimmin' Hole." In the character of the barefoot country boy in James Whitcomb Riley's delectable poem Ray scales the heights of naturalness. Lumps cause each other up and down the throat as one beholds the joys and griefs of boyhood so vividly portrayed as to recall one's own experiences. Judging from the misty eyes and reminiscent chuckles, everyone in the crowded theater was living over again his childhood days.

In each succeeding release this young star has won new laurels, but in "The Old Swimmin' Hole" he crowns all past achievements. It is a first National attraction, presented by Arthur S. Kane, and was adapted for the screen by Bernard McConville and directed by Joseph De Grasse. The well balanced cast deserves mention for their excellent support.

MRS. MAUD WOOD PARK
UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

To educate American women in the duties of citizenship, and to provide them with a neutral meeting ground in the national capital from which, with expert advice, they can watch the government wheels grind—these are the objects of the Woman's National Foundation, of which Mrs. C. C. Calhoun of Washington, D. C., is president. A social and civic leader herself, Mrs. Calhoun has already enlisted the co-operation of such distinguished political thinkers as Mrs. Maud Wood Park to carry out the educational side of the Foundation's program. Mrs. Park is chairman of the Department of Civics, on which subject she will begin lecturing in the Foundation next fall. Any white woman of good moral standing is eligible for membership in the Foundation, which is in reality to be a wonderful national club. One dollar per year is the membership fee for non-residents of the District of Columbia; $2.00 for those living in that area. One thousand dollars makes a woman a member of the Founders' Club, a group which has already made it possible to secure the historic Dean estate in the exclusive Northwest section of Washington as a home for this great feminine civic center. Founders will have their names inscribed in stone on the new buildings, the theatre and convention halls which the Foundation intends to build. Here, too, there will be opened a national clearing house of information on all women's activities, and a monthly bulletin will be published for the use of members. Those interested in the work of the Foundation should communicate at once with Mrs. C. Calhoun, Woman's National Foundation, Connecticut Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.

The Home-Staying Dollar

Is the dollar that counts in the long run. It's the dollar that eventually "comes back." If Jones buys a suit of clothes from Smith and Smith buys a pair of shoes from Jones the dollars involved in the transaction stay in Richmond and both Jones and Smith make a profit.

If, however, Jones buys his suit in some other town and Smith goes elsewhere to buy his shoes, both Jones and Smith lose a profit and the money each spends may never come back to Richmond.

Too many Richmond people buy suits and shoes—and many other necessities—in other cities. Richmond is a prosperous community to be sure, but not nearly so prosperous as it would be if we all remembered that the home-staying dollar.

NOTICE OF COMMISSIONER'S SALE
 In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Contra Costa.
 L. M. Salisbury, Plaintiff vs. Catherine Carter, a widow, and Anna C. Welch, William Wenham, and Howard Paul, John Doe, Rachel Roe and Black-White & Company, a Corporation, Defendants.
 Whereas by an order of sale issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, on the 14th day of August, 1921, in the above-entitled action, wherein, on the first day of August, 1921, the above named plaintiff, L. M. Salisbury, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure of mortgage, which judgment and decree was thereafter on the first day of August, 1921, recorded in Judgment Book 21 at page 189 of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, and which judgment and decree was for the sum of one thousand six and 03/100 ($1,006.03) dollars, I, Clara D. Horner, a Commissioner duly appointed by the said Court in said action am commanded to sell all those certain lots, parcels or parcels of land situated, lying and being in the City of Richmond, Contra Costa County, State of California, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:
 Being all of lots twelve (12) and thirteen (13) in block thirty-seven (37) of the same are laid down, delineated and so designated upon that certain map entitled "Amended Map of Meeker's Addition to Point Richmond" which said map was filed in the office of the County Recorder of said County of Contra Costa, July 9, 1907.
 Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.
 Now therefore, public notice is hereby given that MONDAY, THE 12th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1921, at 11 o'clock A. M. at the front door of the Court House in the City of Martinez, in the County of Contra Costa, State of California, I will in obedience to said Judgment and Decree and said Order of Sale, sell the above described property or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to satisfy the amount of said Judgment together with interest and costs at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, lawful money of the United States.
 Dated this 18th day of August, 1921.
 CLARA D. HORNER,
 Commissioner appointed by said Court in the above entitled action.

A YEAR FOR THE AGES
 A STORY OF THE BUILDERS OF DEMOCRACY
 BY IRVING BACHELLER
 COPYRIGHT IRVING BACHELLER

SYNOPSIS.
 CHAPTER I.—Samson and Harry Traylor, with their two children, Josiah and Betsey, travel by wagon from their home in Vergennes, Vt., to the West, the land of plenty. Their destination is the County of the Sangamon, in Illinois.
 CHAPTER II.—At Niagara Falls they meet a party of immigrants, among them a young man named John McNeil, who also decides to go to the Sangamon country. All of the party suffer from fever and ague. Sarah's ministrations save the life of a youth, Harry Needles, in the last stages of fever and delirium. The Traylor family reach New Salem, Illinois, and are welcomed by young "Abel" Lincoln.

CHAPTER III.—Among the Traylor's first acquaintances are Lincoln's friends, Jack Kelso and his pretty daughter Bim, 15 years of age.
 CHAPTER IV.—Samson decides to locate at New Salem, and begins building his house. Led by Jack Armstrong, a woodsman, he attempts to break up the proceedings. Lincoln thrashes Armstrong. Young Harry Needles, a student of McNeil, of the Armstrong crowd, and McNeil threaten vengeance.
 CHAPTER V.—A few days later Harry, alone, is attacked by McNeil and his men, and would have been roughly used had not Bim driven off his assailants with a shotgun. John McNeil, the Traylor's Niagara Falls acquaintance, is markedly attentive to Ann Rutledge. Lincoln is in love with Ann, but never had enough courage to tell her so.

CHAPTER VI.—Traylor helps two slaves, who had run away from St. Louis, to escape. Eliphalet Biggs, owner of the slaves, following them, attempts to hang up Traylor and in a fight has his arm broken.
 CHAPTER VII.—Waiting for his arm to heal, Biggs meets Bim Kelso, and falls in love. Biggs asks for Bim's hand, but her father refuses his consent. Biggs returns to St. Louis.
 CHAPTER VIII.—Bim confesses to Harry that she is in love with him. The youth is disconsolate. Lincoln decides to seek a seat in the legislature. He and Harry volunteer for the Black Hawk war, and leave New Salem.

CHAPTER IX.—Biggs comes back to the village and he and Bim elope. Harry learns of it on his way home from the war. Lincoln, a student of philosophy, sustains him in his grief.
 CHAPTER X.—Lincoln, defeated in his candidacy for the legislature, forms a partnership with John McNeil. He leaves for his home in the East. In the East, Lincoln meets his old friend, Harry, who has returned from the war. Lincoln is in a deep love endeavor to reassure Harry, though he shares her misgivings. Lincoln wins his seat in the legislature.

CHAPTER XI.—Lincoln, now postmaster, decides to run again for the legislature. Ann Rutledge is openly in love with John McNeil. He leaves for his home in the East. In the East, Lincoln meets his old friend, Harry, who has returned from the war. Lincoln is in a deep love endeavor to reassure Harry, though he shares her misgivings. Lincoln wins his seat in the legislature.

CHAPTER XII.—Ann hears from McNeil. But his letter is cold and she is convinced he does not love her. She tells him of her doubt, and he confesses his love and asks her to marry him. Ann declares she does not yet love him, but with the news of Harry's death, Bim almost makes up her mind to marry him.

CHAPTER XIII.—Ruined by the panic of '73, Kelso dies and Bim and her mother are left penniless. Davis preaches his sermon, and made desperate by the news of Harry's death, Bim almost makes up her mind to marry him.

CHAPTER XIV.—Traylor and Harry Needles visit the "boom" city of Chicago, where Bim, now the mother of a son, is living with her parents. He hurries to Chicago. Harry leaves for the Seminoles war. An unscrupulous, rich speculator, Joseph Davis, desires to marry Bim, but she repulses him.

CHAPTER XV.—Ruined by the panic of '73, Kelso dies and Bim and her mother are left penniless. Davis preaches his sermon, and made desperate by the news of Harry's death, Bim almost makes up her mind to marry him.

CHAPTER XVI.—Lincoln is admitted to the bar. Traylor ascertains that the report of Harry's death is false. He hurries to Chicago. Davis has swindled Bimstead, a friend of Traylor's, in real estate deals, and Traylor seeks to collect the money. Smaligoz breaks out at Honey Creek, and Bim goes there as a nurse.

When Samson and Harry Needles left the courthouse, there seemed to be no obstacle between the young man and the consummation of his wishes. Unfortunately, as they were going down the steps Davis, who blamed Samson for his troubles, flung an insult at the sturdy Vermont. Samson, who had then arrived at years of firm discretion, was little disturbed by the anger of a man so discredited. But Harry, on the sound of the hateful words, had leaped forward and dealt the speculator a savage blow in the face which for a few seconds had deprived him of the power of speech. That evening a friend of Davis called at the City hall with a challenge. The hot-blooded young soldier accepted it against the urgent counsel of Samson Traylor, Mr. Lincoln having left the city.

As to the details of the tragic scene that followed next day the writer has little knowledge. Samson was not the type of man for such a chronicle. The diary speaks of his part in it with shame and sorrow and remorse. We know that it was at daybreak when he and Harry rode to a point on the prairie "something more than a mile from the city hall." There he tells us they met Davis and one friend of the latter and two strangers. It is evident, too, that great secrecy had been observed in the plan and its execution and that, until some time after the last act, Lincoln knew nothing of the later developments in the drama of Davis' downfall. For the rest of the deplorable scene the historian must content himself with the naked details in the diary of a puritan pioneer.

"I went because there was no escape from it and with the shadow of God's wrath in my soul," Samson writes. "The sun rose as we halted our horses. We paced the field. The two men took help me. Bim arrived when Harry was out of his head and didn't know her. She was determined to stay and do the nursing, but I wouldn't let her. She did not look strong. I loaned her the money to pay the debt to Davis and persuaded her to go back to her work in Dixon. She went and was rather heartbroken about it.

"The surgeon said that Harry would live if lung fever didn't set in. It set in, but he pulled through. He mended slowly. I had some fear of arrest, but the conspiracy of silence kept the facts under cover. It was partly due, I guess, to the friendship of John Wentworth for me and Honest Abe. He kept it out of the papers. There were no complaints and the rumors soon fell into silence.

"The boy, Mr. Nimble, is a cunning little man. When he began to get better, Harry loved to play with him and listen to his talks about fairies. The young man was able to leave his bed, by and by, but he didn't get over his weakness and pallor. He had no appetite. I sent him with Nuckles into the Wisconsin woods to live in the open. Then I took the small boy to Dixon with me in the saddle. Bim had just got back to her work. She told me that Eliphalet Biggs had been there. He had heard of the boy and wished to see him and demanded to know where he was. For fear that Biggs would try to get possession of 'Mr. Nimble' I took him with me to Springfield in the saddle.

"I learn that Davis has recovered his health and left the city. A man can not do business without friends and after the trial Chicago was no place for him."

CHAPTER XXIII.
 Which Presents the Pleasant Comedy of Individualism in the New Capital, and the Courtship of Lincoln and Mary Todd.

Samson, with "Mr. Nimble" on a sled, started with straw in front of him, jogged across the prairie and waded the creeks and bluffs on his way to Springfield. The little lad was in his fourth year that summer. He slept and talked much on the way and kept Samson busy with queries about the sky and the creeks and the great flowery meadows.

They camped the first night in a belt of timber and Samson writes that the boy "slept snug against me, with his head on my arm. He went to sleep crying for his mother." He added:

"It reminded me of the old days of my young fatherhood. Mr. Nimble wanted to pick all the flowers and splash his bare feet in every stream. In the evening he would talk to the stars as if he were playing with them. He is like some of the green folks in Chicago. He would sit hanging on the reins, and talk to the horse as to God by the hour. He used to say that God was a friend of his. I think he was right."

trict. The Junior Order, Court of the Rose, will have a class presentation preceding the evening meeting at 8 o'clock. A class of several hundred candidates will receive the Degree of Fraternity in the evening, which will be followed by a reception to the distinguished visitors, Mrs. Wilkenson and Mrs. Adeyette.

The guard team consists of a union team, made up from the different reviews around the bay under the captaincy of Mrs. Hannah Allison of Oakland. No doubt great enthusiasm will be enjoyed by their presence. At this time definite plans will be outlined for the big Marathon meet to be held in California in 1923 at which time over 8000 Eastern visitors will be guests of the state membership.

S.F. OFFICE TEAM SEEKS REVENGE

They're after revenge. Can they do it?

The San Francisco office team, Standard Oil cousins of the local refinery, are going to try to wipe out the memory of the 14 to 5 beating the All Stars handed them four weeks ago. When they meet the Richmond team this afternoon at the First Street grounds they will be all primed for turning the tables.

Dark rumors of a "miracle man," a pitcher that will stop the onslaught of the Richmond wrecking crew, have been circulated in advance by the San Francisco adherents, who will descend on us for the second time with flags flying.

If they have a wonder moundman, as they say they have, can they ho'd Nelson, Schaller, Schwake, Autry and Schimpff hitless? Can they? You tell 'em, Mary Pickford, you've made a hit. Or be there at 2:30 and see for yourself.

OUR THANKS

Tonight at 10 o'clock being the end of the big automobile contest, we take this opportunity to thank the residents of Richmond and vicinity for the loyal support which you have rendered the hustling candidates in our big circulation campaign. The contest started very slowly at first, but grew in speed and the business turned in grew in volume as the campaign progressed. That it has been a wonderful success goes without saying.

To the hustling candidates who have worked so hard and so faithfully during the past eight weeks, we extend our thanks, and must say that we have thoroughly enjoyed the acquaintance which has now ripened into the deepest friendship. We sincerely trust that the future days, as they are cut off and drift away, will bring you many rich awards which we know you so richly deserve.

The standing as published today will not be changed during this week except in case of error, as all votes and subscriptions this week are voted in the sealed ballot box at The First National Bank. IF YOUR STANDING AS PUBLISHED TODAY IS NOT ABSOLUTELY CORRECT, CALL AT THE OFFICE IMMEDIATELY THAT SAME DAY TO BE CORRECTED AT ONCE.

Ferry Companies Fighting For Landings Near Tormey

Indications of a legal battle are seen in the acts of the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company and Six Minute Ferry Company, according to reports from Martinez. It appears that the Rodeo-Vallejo company will be a protestant in the condemnation suit of the Six Minute company brought to obtain seven acres of land at Tormey for a new landing.

The Six Minute Ferry company recently filed suit in the Superior Court to condemn land belonging to the Southern Pacific, the State of California and the Selby Smelting Company. The Six Minute Company claims that the slide at Hanna hill at Crockett is a menace to traffic and is injuring its business.

The latest report is that the Rodeo-Vallejo Company has secured a lease of tide land from several owners near Tormey. It is said that the land will be used for a ferry landing for the Rodeo-Vallejo Company, which plans to take necessary legal steps toward that end in September. The fact of the lease, in view of the condemnation proceedings started by the Six Minute Company is taken to mean that the two companies are prepared to battle for landing rights. It is thought that the condemnation suit of the Six Minute company will meet with vigorous opposition from the Rodeo-Vallejo company when it is brought to trial.

MARTINEZ CHIROPRACTIC IS ARRESTED BY STATE BOARD

E. D. Harvey of Martinez was arrested yesterday on complaint of Pauline Christensen, an operative of the State Board of Medical Examiners on a charge of violating section 17 of the Medical Practice Act. He was taken before Justice of the Peace F. L. Glass and released from custody upon arranging $250 bail. The complainant in the case alleges that Harvey was practicing chiropractic.

Orgy Public Spending Must Be Stopped

At the Nineteenth annual convention of the California State Association of Assessors in session at Oakland, Ray L. Riley, now state controller, warned that "the orgy of public spending must end."

Riley cautioned the assessors to keep taxes to the minimum rate. "You are always crying money—more money—but the time is coming," said Riley, "the orgy of spending of people's money will come to a climax some day, when the people will rise and demand a show-down you will be left high and dry."

"It is only natural that the assessors should wish to raise the valuation of their counties, but I can only say this: Get over that champagne appetite for 'more gold' and get down with the folks and eat common food, and you will be left high and dry. There is no question about it, assessors and tax collectors of the state must in some way reduce assessments and taxes."

Washes Lacy Curtains Without Wear or Tear

The Electric Washer is Particularly Serviceable at Housecleaning Time

Your curtains and draperies can always be fresh and attractive, if you have an Electric Washer in your home to make their washing easy.

A tubful of clothes, snowy-white and spotless, every 10 to 15 minutes, is evidence of the speed with which the Electric Washer does its work.

Washing large, lacy curtains of sheerest fabrics is no more of a task for the Electric Washer than the cleansing of the simpler things.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Truthfully

We believe so. Some firms to-day are offering "hair-raising" specials; even below cost. Does it sound possible that they can do it? Can they sell below cost without a catch somewhere? Its all to fool the public but it does not pay.

After all, it pays better to buy where you get A-1 Quality, A-1 Service and everything at the lowest possible price. All these are found at
